Your day is as important to us as it is for yourselves. Mark Taylor provides a fresh, innovative approach and a modern and imaginative style, which is at the forefront of wedding photography today. We are "not just another wedding photographer" and your wedding is "not just another wedding".

The days have long since passed for just "traditional" wedding shots. Couples today are looking for a more contemporary feel to their photographs, which capture the fun and emotions of the entire day.

Each wedding is approached individually; we will work around your day and fit in with your agenda.

Mark Taylor Photography provides a fully comprehensive service, including unlimited consultations, a creative and contemporary style of photography and a high quality album from which to display your photographs.
